Blazing Plane Landed In Field

49 On Liner Escape Unhurt

Pilots Modest After Kansas Incident

HUGOTON, Kas. (AP) — Two pilots guided a flaming airliner with 49 persons aboard to a perfect landing in a wheat field yesterday, then brushed off the feat as an ordinary job.

The Braniff Airlines DC-4 came down with one of its four engines gone and a wing in flames. Only one passenger was injured.

Chief Pilot Jack Stanford commented tersely:

"The only sensible thing to do was land."

Minutes after the 45 passengers and four crew members scurried out, flames consumed virtually the entire plane.

Neither Stanford nor co-pilot John Beakley, both of Dallas, Tex., would take credit for the extraordinary job. They had little to say.

But O. R. Stites, an Oklahoma City lawyer who was a passenger, described the landing "as smooth as any I've ever seen."

Describes Situation

He gave this description:

"I was sitting on the right side about two seats back of the wing when I noticed fire around the right inboard engine. I called the stewardesses and they went forward to tell the captain (Stanford).

"He came back, took one quick look and told us to fasten our safety belts. Then he banked the plane to put the stress on the opposite wing and started down. I judged we were about 6,000 feet above ground then.

"About halfway down the motor fell off."

"No one talked at all. I guess they were too scared, just like I was."

Stites said the passengers "could feel the heat of the flames as we came into the wheat field."

Slide Down Ropes

The pilot threw ropes out the doors and out of an emergency door on the left side of the plane.

"Most of the men jumped down, but the women slid down the ropes. One of the women, who said she was 82, wrapped a magazine around the rope to protect her hands and slid right on down.

The injured passenger was Miss Jesse Watts, Greensboro, N. C., who skinned a leg sliding down a rope.

Two Army Plane Crashes Kill 12

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Twelve military airmen were killed in two plane crashes in the Southwest yesterday.

Eight died in the flaming wreckage of a B-29 bomber from Davis-Monthan Air Force Base here and four perished in the crash of a B-47 Stratojet bomber from Kirtland AFB on the edge of Albuquerque, N. M.

Both crashes occurred shortly after the planes had taken off from their bases.

The B-29, with one engine dead, was trying to return to its base when it crashed, exploded and burned in the desert five miles from the base.

Names of the dead in this crash were to be released sometime today, Maj. Maston Jacks, base public information officer, said.

Frightened Drivers Glimpse Route 40 Phantom In Area

The Phantom of Route 40 tried another change of nightmarish tactics—with a new variation—early this morning, shifting his maniacal operations from his favorite haunts to this district, the State Highway Patrol said today.

The patrol received four calls from panicked motorists between 1:50 and 2:20 a. m. today, all claiming to have seen the mysterious night rider in the vicinity of Lisbon and Wellsville.

Fred Henry of Hillcrest, near Wellsville, related to the patrol his son saw the phantom on Route 30 while driving home. The youth, badly frightened, shakily told his father the weird character executed his usual stunts, adding a new twist.

Phantom Shrieks, Moans

According to the youth, the specter, dressed in an eerie, green costume, was apparently driving a car with a right-hand drive and seemed to be either sitting to the right of the wheel or standing on the running board while operating it.

Moans, screams and shrieks and his fanatical laugh emanated from the auto, which cast a green glow in the blackened night. A green fog enveloped the phantom's car as he first appeared behind the youth's auto and then in front of it.

Ten minutes later a woman reported he was up to his old tricks on Route 30 just south of Lisbon, and another woman motorist said she saw him on a county road just east of West Point.

A Wellsville man said he was chased by the mechanized ghost into the city limits of Wellsville.

Both the State Highway Patrol and Wellsville police combed the area but he had mysteriously vanished.

One patrolman quipped: "I'd like to catch him just to find out what makes him tick."

The phantom first appeared on Route 40 about a couple of months ago and, after making a brief appearance on Route 7, returned to Route 40 to continue his motorized wanderings.

Rural Schools Plan Spelling Bees Friday

Schools of the county's rural system will hold spelling bees Friday morning to select representatives for district eliminations Friday, April 4, in Lisbon.

Two contests will be held—one for the fifth and sixth grades, the other for seventh and eighth. The younger students will vie for the county junior title while two county finalists from the upper grades will compete in The Salem News' finals April 25 at Steubenville.

Tomorrow's winners will compete April 4 at four locations. Pupils of Beaver Local schools will have their bee at Rogers; Negley, New Waterford, Unity and Fairfield will meet at New Waterford; Knox, West and United Local will compete at West, and Salineville, Franklin, Yellow Creek and Wayne will spell down at No. 16 near Wellsville.

Each district will send its first, second and third winners from each division to the county contest Thursday, April 10 at United Local School. District winners will get certificates from the County Board of Education and the top two in each division at the county finals will be awarded medals.

The Steubenville winner goes to the National Bee, May 19-24 in Washington.

Extension Of Controls Faces New Hurdles

Officials Protest Committee Action On One-Year Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Storm signals were up in Congress today on the administration's request to extend and strengthen the network of price, wage, rent, credit and materials controls.

Angry comments about the proposed steel workers' pay boost, intended to avert a crippling strike, whipped up gales of opposition.

Chairman Maybank (D-SC) is pushing the senate banking committee to get its extension bill on to the senate floor.

But progress was suspended until next week after Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) officials entered a hurried protest on tentative senate committee actions.

One was a vote to revise the Herlong amendment which last year assured retailers and wholesalers of historic profit percentages, or margins, on price ceilings fixed "hereafter."

Claimed Inflationary

President Truman and price control officials have been pushing for repeal of the Herlong amendment, saying it is inflationary. An attempt to kill it was beaten 10 to 3 in the senate committee yesterday.

Then the group voted to strike out the "hereafter." OPS officials said that would reopen thousands of price ceilings fixed prior to last August when the Herlong amendment began to operate.

Failure to kill the Herlong amendment and broadening its application is regarded as a blow to the administration.

Rent controls in Chicago and other large cities survived by a 7-6 vote in the senate committee.

Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill) moved to limit the rent control extension to strictly critical defense areas. This failed by a single vote.

Sen. Moody (D-Mich) said Dirksen's move would have killed federal rent controls in most large cities, except New York City which is covered by a state law. Most urban centers do not qualify as critical defense areas.

Truman Asked 2 Years

President Truman had asked a two-year extension of the entire controls program but the senate group accepted, without a record vote, the one year extension proposed by Maybank.

Truman also had asked outright repeal of a section that now bans imports of foreign cheese, butter and dairy products. The committee did this but promptly substituted a world war imports ban which Maybank said was more liberal and should please the President.

Still intact was the Capehart amendment which Truman has called "terrible."

Inserted last year, this amendment directs officials fixing prices for manufacturers and processors to consider all post-Korea cost increases such as wage and tax boosts prior to July 26 last year.

Oldest Triplets Mark Their 84th Birthday

MARLBORO, Mass. (AP) — Three spry ladies—possibly the country's oldest triplets—are observing their 84th birthday today.

The former Faith, Hope and Charity Coughlin are identical triplets.

They looked so much alike when they started school in their native North Brookfield, their mother put them into different dresses to give the teachers a break.

When they wear identical dresses nowadays, even old neighbors get confused. But they only put them on for special occasions.

All widows, the triplets still are exactly the same height and weigh almost the same. All boast good health.

Nebraska GOP Primary Center

Wisconsin Outcome Also Awaited Tuesday

(By The Associated Press)

Republicans, waging a stiff presidential nomination battle in Wisconsin, today stepped up their efforts to make Nebraska also a prime popularity testing ground.

Both states hold primaries next Tuesday to choose GOP and Democratic convention delegates.

Backers of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio drummed up a write-in campaign in Nebraska they hope can offset his losses in New Hampshire and Minnesota. And supporters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower tried to match the Taft drive.

Two weeks ago the Nebraska primary appeared of little national significance in the Republican picture with only Harold Stassen and Mrs. Mary Kennedy, Lincoln housewife and backer of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, entered.

Taft's forces called in retired Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, a native Nebraskan, to give their campaign a shot in the arm.

Wedemeyer told newsmen he considered Taft "the best qualified avowed candidate for the presidency considering the conditions faced by our country today." He said Eisenhower was "an avowed candidate" but not MacArthur.

In the Democratic race, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee returned from Wisconsin to resume his Nebraska campaigning. Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, his April 1, opponent, told newsmen in Lincoln last night he thought "we are gaining on Kefauver."

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Daily Sun-Times, in a copyright dispatch from Washington, today said that Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois has "firmly declined President Truman's invitation to seek the Democratic presidential nomination."

"And," said the story written by Carleton Kent, "it was learned Wednesday only a full-blown convention draft could shake his (Stevenson's) decision."

"Stevenson communicated his decision, gently but with great firmness, to Mr. Truman shortly before the President's departure for a Key West holiday on March 7," the Sun-Times added.

Confers With Aides Privately On Strike Threat

Truman Due Back From Florida; Talks Resume In Pittsburgh

WASHINGTON (AP)—Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson dropped plans today for a top level parley of government officials concerned with the threat of a steel strike April 8.

Instead, he talked separately with the various price and wage control executives and ruled out any announcement today of what he may do next to head off a strike.

Wilson has declared the recommendations of the Wage Stabilization Board, proposing a 17½-cent hourly pay increase and other benefits for the CIO Steelworkers are inflationary and too high. This statement stirred up wrathful retorts from CIO President Philip Murray and the union declared that if the steel industry doesn't accept the WSB recommendations, the responsibility for a serious strike will be on the companies.

Wilson, Putnam Confer

Wilson talked for 20 minutes this morning with Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam at the Westchester apartments, where they both live. Then, he had a talk in his own office with Nathan P. Feinsinger, WSB chairman who has upheld his board's recommendations as uninflationary and justified. Price Stabilizer Ellis Arnall was listed for a later, separate talk.

A spokesman for Wilson's Office of Defense Mobilization refused to confirm or deny that he plans to keep hands off the steel wage dispute for the present in hopes of progress in union-management negotiations which started yesterday in Pitsburgh, and resumed today.

The situation was such that it even appeared possible that, with President Truman due back from his Florida vacation in late afternoon, someone in the mobilization hierarchy may quit soon.

Look to Washington

One thing appeared certain: That the CIO steelworkers union, headed by Philip Murray, will get nowhere in negotiations with steel firms until the administration makes up its mind. The companies said they'll need price boosts of $12-a-ton if they grant the WSB-recommended terms.

Bargaining talks between Murray's union and U. S. Steel Corp. and Jones & Laughlin steel began yesterday in Pittsburgh, but nothing was accomplished. Both sides looked to Washington for guidance.

The administration's real task was two-fold: To answer the questions (1) whether Feinsinger's WSB over-stepped itself in its suggested solution, and (2) assuming a wage boost, whether steel profits require any price boost to keep them in the black.

Eight Persons Die When Home Burns

SOMERSET, Pa. (AP) — Eight persons—six of them children—burned to death today in a farmhouse blaze at nearby Rockwood, eight miles south of this southwestern Pennsylvania community.

Only Franklin Whipkey, 10, one of the seven children at home at the time, escaped unhurt. He jumped out of a window.

Neighbors said the blaze apparently broke out about 7 a.m. in the three-story frame home of John Whipkey, retired coal miner and father of 14.

Flames swept rapidly through the old farmhouse.

Firemen from Somerset and nearby communities reported the blaze out of control upon arrival. They removed four charred bodies from the ruins but they were so badly burned that identification was not immediately determined.

Dr. C. G. Saylor, Somerset county coroner, reported only a smoldering shell of the house, located about eight miles south of Somerset, was left standing.

Firemen answered four calls Wednesday and one this morning, making their tenth run in the past 24 hours, Chief Clarence Wright said today.

Seven of the ten calls were caused by grass fires and Chief Wright appealed to persons burning brush and leaves to take extra caution because of the strong winds.

At 11:30 a.m. Wednesday firemen were called to 994 N. Ellsworth Ave. to extinguish a grass fire, and at 11:57 a.m. they were summoned to the intersection of Ohio Ave. and E. State St. where a tree was smouldering.

Firemen were called to a grass fire at 1416 Buckeye Circle at 12:33 p.m. Wednesday and to another grassfire near the city limits on the Goshen Rd. three hours later.

At 9:40 a.m. today the firefighters went to the home of Bertha Olott at 340 N. Ellsworth Ave., where a defective chimney sausted slight smoke damage.

Market Brightens; Oils, Rails Rise

NEW YORK (INS)—The stock market took a turn for the better today with rails and oils showing to particular advantage.

Although volume showed only a slight expansion, Wall Street was somewhat more optimistic on the prospects for a peaceful solution of the steel wage controversy.

Rail shares were taken in hand on the assumption that a further hike in freight rates would soon be approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Northern Pacific set the pace with a rise of 2¼ points; Santa Fe up 1⅛; Union Pacific up 1; and Colorado and Southern up 1.

The high-priced Texas Pacific Land Trust highlighted the oils with a further spurt of 6½ points on top of yesterday's 12-point jump. Shell gained 2¾ points; Kern County Land was up 2; and Phillips Petroleum advanced 1¼.

No Anthrax Cases Reported In County

Floyd Lower, county agricultural extension agent, said this morning at Lisbon that Columbiana County had had no cases of anthrax reported.

Apparently no infected feed had been shipped into the county as neither the County Health Department nor Lower have received that information from Doctor John Porterfield, chief of the State Department of Health.

However, Porterfield sent a letter to the County Health Department urging a calm, scientific approach if the disease strikes here. B. Russell Franklin, sanitary engineer, said copies of the letter were mailed Tuesday to county physicians and veterinarians.

1 Mishap, 7 Arrests Reported By Patrol

One person was injured and another arrested as the result of a highway traffic mishap which occurred at 10 p. m. Wednesday on Route 62, about two miles west of Westville.

State Highway Patrolmen said that a car driven west by Robert B. Hagerman, 18, of RD 2, Minerva, collided head-on with an approaching auto operated by Elmer L. Kanchok, 26, of Youngstown as Hagerman was attempting to pass another vehicle.

Carole Stewart, 18, a passenger in Hagerman's car, sustained lacerations of the face and forehead, concussion, and a possible fracture of the left wrist and was admitted to Alliance City Hospital.

Hagerman was cited by patrolman for reckless operation.

In other State Highway Patrol activity, six other drivers were arrested and fined on various charges within the past few days. Fined were: Maynard Strack of Akron, overload, $74; William O. Moody of Warren, passing over the yellow line, $10; Carl D. Comsa of Leetonia, failing to stop at a stop sign, $5; Gus Longworth of Cleveland, driving a truck not equipped with mud flaps, $10.

Gail Staley of Alliance, failing to stop at a stop sign, $10 and Victor A. Demczyk of Cleveland, truck improperly loaded, $10. Court costs were also assessed in each case.

Vitamin E May Save Lambs, Calves Lives

CHICAGO (AP)—Development of a highly potent vitamin E concentrate may save the lives of thousands of lambs and calves this spring, the American Veterinary Medical Association said today.

Workers at Michigan State College have learned that the concentrate, known as Alpha Tocopherol, can prevent in animals a condition known as "white muscle" disease.

The disease, believed due to a shortage of vitamin E, can cause calves and lambs to die of heart trouble.

Symptoms in lambs include slow movement, leg stiffness, arched back, pneumonia and difficulty in breathing. Calves may develop a founder-like stiffness, show respiratory symptoms or stand with tongue protruding, fighting for breath.

AVMA spokesmen said veterinarians hope to be able to ward off the disease by treating lambs and calves, as well as pregnant cows which have been on a deficient diet. The vitimin is administered intra-muscularly.

Dress Size Changes From 46 to 16 With Rennel

"Believe me I am 100% sold on Rennel Concentrate and here is why," writes Mrs. Ralph Nettle, R.D. No. 1, Clinton, Ohio. "I weighed 222 lbs. and decided to try Rennel after reading about the wonderful results so many people have obtained from your product. In six months' time I was down to 172 lbs. Before starting with Rennel I wore a size 46 dress. Today I wear size 16. My secret is Rennel and I have never starved myself to lose this weight. I ate plenty of fruits and vegetables, and with good sense ate anything else you may name. Many friends and relatives have asked how I managed to lose this weight, and believe me I have recommended Rennel highly. I personally know eight other women that are now using Rennel since seeing the success that I have had with it. Rennel is wonderful."

Imagine, eat plenty and lose weight with this simple yet effective amazing home recipe. After purchasing a bottle of Rennel from your druggist pour the contents into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. No diets to complicate your meal planning. No expensive vitamins to fortify your system from weakness while going without food for you can eat normally. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender, more youthful curves—if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. Insist on genuine Rennel.

Strange Career

HAROLD E. STASSEN'S strange career in politics has reached its climax. It looks more like a problem in psychiatry than a problem in politics.

Frustrated and grown old in his role as a young man of presidential promise, Stassen has revealed in Wisconsin that his sole purpose in that state's primary next Tuesday is to hurt Sen. Taft.

Half of his delegates, if any, will be turned over to Gen. Eisenhower on the first ballot at the convention, he has announced The other half will be free to go to the general on the second ballot.

The same negative approach to what is supposed to be a positive expression of popular feeling is in sight in the Ohio primary in May. Stassen has tagged himself and his adherents as stalking horses.

That is a curiously distorted role for anyone to play in a direct primary.

One wonders what must be the effect of this animosity which causes a man who once was thought to be of presidential caliber to narrow down his vision until he has no purpose but to hurt someone else.

Can Mr. Stassen and his friends be sure they are not hurting Gen. Eisenhower more than they are hurting Sen. Taft?

Whoever wins the Republican nomination will have to rely on all other Republicans to help him in the campaign for the presidency and to help him in the presidency if he is elected.

Mr. Stassen's bitter and negative attitude toward another leader of the Republican party discredits him and must be as embarrassing to Gen. Eisenhower as it is offensive to Sen. Taft.

If there is any justice in politics, Wisconsin Republicans should make certain Stassen has no delegates to give away, since he admits he is too weak to win any for himself.

"Ready, Aim, Fire"

THE Democratic-Labor Boss attack on Gen. Eisenhower which is beginning, in case the general becomes the Republican presidential nominee, will be a curious thing to watch as it gains momentum.

The people behind the attack are experts in the business. They inherited a technique of smearing, defaming and belittling which reached a climax in the campaign to drive Herbert Hoover out of the White House in 1932.

They learned many of their tricks from the Communists who helped them in that unscrupulous project. They had the initial advantage of being utterly unscrupulous; they could stage a phony bonus march on Washington, circulate scurrilous literature, or put on a fake demonstration on a public square with a clear conscience.

With Hoover out of the way, they turned their attack on free enterprise, with the eager cooperation of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Ultimately, they went to work on Sen. Taft of Ohio as their favorite whipping boy. The climax of their special efforts at his expense was reached in the senatorial campaign of 1950.

Gen. Eisenhower now is going to get their attention. He can draw comfort from these significant facts: That Mr. Hoover survived their smears to become a respected elder statesman; that the free enterprise system survived their attack, and that Sen. Taft won admiration and confidence because of some of the enemies he made while fearlessly standing up for his convictions.

Ready Cash

IN READING, PA., over the last weekend, the theft of $125,300 was reported by a widow and her son.

This sum of money had been taken in cash from a box kept in their modest home. The incident is the latest in a series of thefts of large sums of cash taken from houses.

There probably is no single explanation for the presence of these large sums in places where they are not secure. But among the several explanations which come to mind is tax resistance.

A homely but fundamental axiom of taxation is that the best tax is the one which results in the greatest possible plucking of feathers from the geese with the least possible resistance from the goose.

When tax rates reach the point where temptation to avoid tax payments becomes almost as strong as fear of the consequences, tax collectors run into trouble. The Bureau of Internal Revenue acknowledges this in its repeated requests for larger appropriations to hire more employes. It is pointed out that the increased expense can be recovered in increased revenue as it is brought to light by more spadework in neglected places.

Religious Tolerance

Catholic Bishop Replies To Spanish Cardinal

WASHINGTON

PRESIDENT TRUMAN the other day said he didn't like the Franco regime in Spain, and the remark caused a furor. The White House quickly explained that the President was referring to the lack of religious tolerance in Spain. Then came a vigorous attack by Cardinal Segura of Spain on Protestant missions in that country.

Now comes a rejoiner from a high Catholic source in this country which is sensational not only in its expression of opposition to what Cardinal Segura said but in its exposition, for the benefit of the Spanish clergy, of what should be the tolerance of Catholics toward Protestants and vice versa.

THE EDITORIAL, appearing first a few days ago in the "Indiana Catholic and Record," which is the official organ of Archbishop Paul Schulte of Indianapolis, has struck a responsive chord among other Catholic journals in other dioceses. Entitled "The Cardinal Is Calling the Cops Four Centuries Late," it reads as follows:

"If the surprising remarks of the Spanish Cardinal Segura have been reported accurately, they are sure to strain the charitable efforts of Americans — Catholic as well as Protestant—to understand the Spanish mentality. The cardinal is reported to have complained in a pastoral letter that 'Protestant proselytism, having broken the dikes of tolerance, is not hesitating to advance on the open field toward religious freedom in our country.'

"Catholic writers who have been painfully explaining that religious freedom, of a Spanish sort, exists in Spain will certainly be embarrassed by the cardinal's blunt admission that religious freedom is an evil to be avoided at all costs. Some Catholic comment will doubtless fall into the rather tired and unimpressive line that Catholics are persecuted in some Protestant countries, too.

"We think it is high time to admit that Spain is quite a bit behind the times. Everyone knows that Spain is a good century behind the leaders of the Western world industrially and agriculturally. But in the matter of religious harmony Spain seems to be roughly four centuries in arrears. For some obscure reasons Spanish churchmen do not seem to be ready to admit what happened around 1520—namely the Protestant revolt. Cardinal Segura's reported remarks would have had a timely ring if they had been uttered in 1552. However, it seems a bit fatuous to cling at this date to the attitude that the Protesant heresy is a dangerous threat which can be forestalled only by vigilance and rigorous control. Elsewhere in the world Catholics and Protestants have long since passed through the stage of refusing to acknowledge each other's existence.

"CATHOLICS in other countries, while equally zealous and orthodox in their adherence to the faith, see Protestantism not as a threat but as a fact. They hold quite as strongly as Cardinal Segura that Protestantism is a heresy, that it teaches serious errors in doctrine. They deplore too the harm to a united Christendom which the Protestant revolt has caused. But in America, and elsewhere, competition, not suppression, has been the automatic reaction. It seems to ue that Cardinal Segura, Dictator Franco and others in Spain should take a look at their history books. Not only could they discover that the Protestant revolt actually did happen and had rather considerable repercussions all over the world, but they might also notice that any persecution—short of extermination—has invariably strengthened the persecuted religion in the long run. Catholics should be the last to forget that.

"Another point that history might clarify is that Protestantism has lost by this time most of the vigor and drive that once characterized it and brought such conquests. Whenever Protestantism is met by a strong informed Catholicism today, there is simply no contest. When the Spanish leaders tire of the history review, which we suggest for them, they might gaze abroad at the current religious scene. One point that might occur easily is that Protestantism is the wrong dragon today. Any lances that can be spared from the anti-Communist battle had better be tossed at other targets than Protestantism. A second lesson from current history might be derived from a comparison of the vitality and vigor of American Catholicism flourishing in a Protestant stronghold, with the protected and over-advertised brand of Catholicism in Spain.

"To some these remarks may smack of religious jingoism, but we feel it is past time for American Catholics to be relieved from the oppressive burden of our Spanish brethren. We have spent weary hours cleaning up the blood the Spaniards overzealously spilled in the inquisition. If they wish to call the cops on the Protestants four centuries late they can take the blame themselves. Let them fend for themselves against the slings and arrows of world opinion.

"In time, we trust, even the Spaniards will recognize that although religious error has really no rights, the heretics who hold the error do have certain fundamental rights which the state must respect and protect—rights that the Popes as head of the papal states preserved for the Jews and Waldensians in the Eternal City itself—to follow one's conscience, to build one's churches and to worship as one chooses, so long as this does not infringe upon the rights of others."

Have Doctor Check Toxemia in Pregnancy

ONE of the most important unsolved problems connected with pregnancy is the question of toxemia with which Mrs. M.A.B. and others have had experience, and which they have asked me to discuss.

Dr. Jordan

Although progress in obstetrics has been extensive, the toxemias of pregnancy are responsible for about 1,000 maternal deaths annually in the United States, and approximately 30,000 infants who are still-born.

There are several kinds of pregnancy toxemias, but they are usually divided into the acute, including a preeclampsia and eclampsia, and the chronic, or high blood pressure type.

They are chacterized by one or more of the following signs: high blood pressure, fluid or edema of the tissues, excretion of albumen or protein in the urine, and in severe cases, convulsions, or unconsciousness.

As stated previously, the toxemias of pregnancy may carry grave risks for both mother and child. The fact that toxemias do exist is one of the principle reasons why a woman who is pregnant should visit her physician at fairly frequent intervals, especially during the latter portion of the pregnancy.

Those who do this—and all should—are familiar with the fact that the visit to the doctor almost invariably includes having the blood pressure taken, taking the weight of the mother, and sending a sample of urine to the laboratory. A rising blood pressure, a sudden excessive gain in weight, or the presence of albumen in the urine, are warning signs.

Many lives have been saved by catching signs of toxemia of pregnancy early and sometimes by bringing about an earlier than expected delivery. The appearance of signs of toxemia in one pregnancy may carry an additional risk in the subsequent pregnancies, but on this question, each case must be judged on the basis of all the individual circumstances.

The chief point which cannot be too much empasized is that complete obstetrical care involves more than just the delivery of the infant alone.

The Gulf Stream does not always flow in the same place, but along part of its course in some seasons of the year is hundreds of miles away from its location in other seasons.

This Baby-Sitting Deal Is Getting Out of Hand

McCarran vs. Lattimore

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

WHEN Owen Lattimore issued his 17,500-word diatribe against Congress and the world, many newspapers published huge parts of it. Senator McCarran's reply, to which all members of his committee subscribed, was, in my judgment, insufficiently noted.

It would seem that Senator McCarran's formal charges, part of the record of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, places upon attorney general the obligation to examine the record and to initiate actions under the law.

Senator McCarran said:

" . . . the committee was confronted with an initial fusillade of invective, and a consistently evasive, contentious, and belligerent attitude.

"Suggestions have been made that the committee would seek to discipline Mr. Lattimore for his contumacious and contemptuous conduct. Clearly, Mr. Lattimore did, on many occasions, stand in contempt of the committee . . ."

AS REGARDS Lattimore's memory, Senator McCarran stated:

"Mr. Lattimore has testified to having a type of memory with which the committee is quite familiar. With respect to some matters, he has demonstrated that his memory is extremely good. But he has testified that his memory was unreliable with respect to matters yhich ordinary men might be expected to remembers most clearly. Very few men forget about their visits to the President of the United States, if the number of such visits is small. But Mr. Lattimore, who said he saw President Truman just once, wanted this committee to believe he had forgotten the incident when he testified before the Tydings committee with respect to his influence on foreign policy..

"Mr. Lattimore also has testified before this committee that all during that prior senate investigation he forgot the fact that he had a desk in the State Department building for 'four, five, or six' months during the last war.

"The precise extent to which Mr. Lattimore gave untruthful testimony before this committee will never be determined. Human limitations will prevent us from ever attaining the complete knowledge of all his activities which would make it possible to assess each statement he had made and to catalogue fully whatever untruths he may have uttered. That he has uttered untruths stands clear on the record . . ."

SENATOR McCARRAN then proceeded to report in detail a number of untruths which appear in the testimony. As I am now engaged in reading the whole of the transcript of this hearing, I seem to have found some that Senator McCarran missed—contradictions, tricks of memory, etc. Of course, none of us can be sure of memories, but the the subject matter with which the committee concerns itself relates directly to the fields in which Latimore is a reputed expert. In such fields, it is expected that his memory will serve.

One interesting phase of the Lattimore testimony is his relationship to American policy. He denies that he has influenced the United States policy in the Far East. Yet, his testimony, as Senator McCarran states, shows that he exercised a very potent influence. This is the senator's statement:

". . . Mr. Lattimore's testimony is significant with respect to the facts. He testified that he wrote a letter to the President of the United States, in 1945, making certain statements with regard to conditions in the Far East, and urging a review of United States foreign policy with respect to the Far East, from which review then top officials of the State Department should be excluded.

MR. LATTIMORE testified that he saw the President personally, and left with him memoranda suggesting certain courses of action with respect to Japan and China; and that these memoranda included a recommendation for giving a larger measure of high authority to officials with China backgrounds.

"Soon thereafter, according to Mr. Lattimore's own testimony, the then top officials of the state department were replaced, including Former Ambassador Grew. Further, the number and importance of top jobs in the State Department, held by persons with China backgrounds, was increased. Finally this witness testified that the policy advocated, shortly thereafter, in the so-called "directive' of Dec. 15, 1945, on China policy, and which our government sought to carry out in China, was substantially the same as the policy outlined in Mr. Lattimor's memoranda."

Shorn Lambs

By TRUMAN TWILL

AN out-of-the-way specialty in this age of specialization is sheep-shearing.

In every area where sheep are raised, someone must do this important job. The annual wool crop is one of three reasons why sheep continue to be an important element in agricultural economy. The other two are the mutton chop and the usefulness of sheep for cleaning up farm land which otherwise would have to be cleaned up by machine methods, or permitted to grow up in brush.

This year the wool crop is back to a marginal-value basis, after a boom in 1951 which inflated wild hopes of rehabilitating the once-profitable sheep-raising industry in the United States. In 1951, fleeces brought more than a dollar a pound at the top of the market in early spring. But by early summer, the bottom had dropped out again. The price this year is about 50 cents a pound.

Removing wool from sheep is a project which requires all the skill that can be developed through years of experience. While it is one of those jobs which anyone can do after a fashion, if he has the necessary equipment, only those who have learned how to do it the right way can perform the task without knocking themselves out.

It is comparable to paper-hanging, plucking down from a goose and painting a house — all jobs which anyone can do in a pinch but which can be done feasibly only by those who have developed the knack. A sheep-shearer who knows his stuff can whack out a nice living at it during the season. But he earns it.

He must know just how to grab hold of an animal that weighs almost as much as he does, rassle it off its feet and give it a hair cut from its eyelashes to the tip of its tail without any cooperation. And he must have learned how to do all this without losing his temper and without drawing blood.

Thanks to rural electrification, he does the job in these days with electric clippers, instead of the traditional sheep shears, or the hand-propelled clippers used less than a generation ago.

The fleece is removed in one piece, like taking off a coat that buttons up the front but is glued fast. And when the coat has been pried loose, the saddest sight in the animal kingdom is revealed. Sheep and women are nothing, just nothing, without their crowning glory.

A few years ago in Australia, where they count sheep by zillions, an old ram which had been evading the shearers for nobody knows how long was rounded up and yielded a fleece weighing close to 100 pounds. Ten pounds is high for an animal yield from most of the breeds raised in this part of the United States; the average must be about six.

The shearer gets upward of 65 cents a fleece, depending on how much assistance he is given by the owner. Under ideal conditions, he can handle a sheep in five minutes, but ideal conditions rarely prevail. Perhaps that is why in this part of the country shearers are hard to find and, once found, are accorded all the courtesy which would be shown to a plumber on a Saturday-night emergency call.

The Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that if the best combinations of known practices were put to use on all farms in the United States, farm production could be increased as much as 75 per cent.

Spring Prayer

By HAL BOYLE

Fore Unlovely Things On Earth

NEW YORK

SPRING PRAYER by the poor man's philosopher:

It is such a beautiful season, Lord, that everything upon the budding earth and bending sea should share thine own vast compassion.

Hal Boyle

Teach us to understand the eternal why of all unlovely things.

Such as—

Poison snakes, biting dogs, poison ivy, puppies in zoot suits, the thorn upon the rose's stem, the stinging thistle underfoot, gossips and witches and people too big for their britches.

Yes, such as toll roads and taxes, road hogs and gay old dogs, tourist traps and weasels, and the daubs of paint upon modernistic artists' easels.

SHOW US THINE own endless patience in dealing with our daily vexations and frustrations.

Such as—

Falling hair and rising prices, doors that jam, slide fasteners that stick, relatives and wonder drugs that won't work, television sets that work too often, drug clerks who try to sell us deordorants and lotions, and statesmen with weird political notions.

Grant us, O Lord, thine own mercy in judging the stuffed shirts of our time.

Such as—

Pontifical columnists and commentators, sanctimonious parsons, people who measure your social standing by the length of your motor car, radio master-of-ceremony smarties and the long-winded intellectuals who try to save the world at cocktail parties.

-:-

LET US, O LORD, forgive all even as thou dost forgive.

Such as—

The fellow who passes us a counterfeit $5 bill, those who did us a small favor and couldn't help making a big brag about it later, the idealist with a mind of one dimension, bill collectors who won't grant us just one more extension, and the butcher who in the last war didn't give us the breaks when when we asked for steaks.

Seal our lips against making a big gripe about our own small troubles. Help us put up with them.

Such as—

THE SPOILED KID next door that wails half the night, the neighbor that won't lend us his new lawnmower just because we broke his old one, complaining wives, husbands that stop off for just one more—and then come home and try to kick their way through the door.

Yes, such as the brother-in-law who comes to visit for a week and stays on through the years, mosquitoes in the parlor, cockroaches in the kitchen, sudden small pains and the garbage that insists upon clogging the drains.

Teach us, O Lord, in this beautiful spring to take the little and the big in stride, to appreciate the shower as well as the flower, to look at both sides of the wonderful gold coin of life.

Let us be grateful even for the mice in our paradise.

Phone Service Expanding Here

V. F. W. Auxiliary Elects Officers

COLUMBIANA — Reflecting the "growing pains" of Columbiana, the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. has found it necessary recently to change the fire phone number at City Hall from 511 to 2511. No confusion will be experienced, however, as the two numbers are tied in together until after the issue of the new directory, which will be ready for distribution early in May, when the new 2511 number will prevail.

Commercial Manager Carl Willman of the telephone company's Salem district explains that the change was requirtd by the necessity of eliminating the 500 bracket from the Columbiana exchange to make a path for the increasing volume of business from this exchange to new equipment being added in the Salem plant. All Columbiana exchange telephone numbers in the 500 bracket will be transferred to the 2000 and 2500.

A comparison of the present 2,053 Columbiana telephones listed in the directory with 639 in the previous peak year of 1929 shows that phone users here have multiplied more than three times.

Salem High School Cancels Baseball, Salem Night Relays

Financial, Other Relays Cited As Reasons For Elimination

Baseball and the Salem Night Relays have been abandoned from the Salem High School athletic program, it was announced today by the high school athletic board.

Baseball, given a one-year trial last year, is back on the inactive list for the duration. The national sport was given a trial under the guidance of Chester M. Brautigam last season and the athletic board cited various reasons why the game is being dropped.

One of the reasons was Salem's lack of suitable playing ground where admission could be charged for games. Location for baseball isn't ideal since travel to Youngstown would cost the athletic association more than it cares to release. Youngstown schools have it much nicer and can travel very cheaply to other schools of Youngstown.

The short season is also a fact in the elimination of baseball. The board cited that bad weather prohibits teams from starting practice early enough. The playing field isn't always suitable.

The board also said that many boys aren't able to participate in baseball as they are in the track and field events, which will still exist at the school. When a boy tries to compete in both sports,, one or both of them suffer, it was explained.

THE NIGHT RELAYS, famous all over the world for being the first relays under the lights, are being eliminated after 17 years. Founded by Wilbur J. Springer in 1930, the Relays were in action through 1942 when the war forced cancellation until 1947.

Financial reasons and the many other relays in Ohio were the main causes for the board's action. The lack of support from Salem and district fans also was a point in eliminating the annual event.

The board pointed out that there are 31 relays scheduled in Ohio from April 4 to May 13. Many teams have attended the Ohio Scholastic Conference Relays in the past years, instead of the local affair, some because of the closeness of site and others since they are members of the conference. Warren, a team who usually attends the Salem Relays, was forced to participate in the conference relays last year since they are members of the league.

During the 17 times the Relays have been run, Faculty Manager Fred Cope said that 12 state winners have competed. The Relays possessed the most experienced referees and judges since its opening and bad weather has never interrupted the world famous event.

MANY GREAT TRACK stars have competed with teams in one of the largest and oldest meets in the state. The biggest turnout for the Relays was in 1937 when 44 teams participated.

Many teams have perfect attendance since the opening of the Relays. The Cleveland East Tech squads have taken part in all the Relays except in 1949 when the meet was won by Canton McKinley. With '48 excepted East Tech has captured the event in the last seven runnings.

MANY WANT SIDEWALLS

AKRON (AP)—There is a big backlog of demand for white sidewall tires, a rubber industry spokesman said today. Some rubber circles said companies started making white sidewalls again for the first time in 13 months, as soon as the government announced yesterday production could resume.

Little City Cage Tournament Full Of Action; Conway Music Wins As Mullins Is Dumped

Salem's Little City Invitational basketball tournament got underway with a bang last night with a couple of upsets along with a one-sided tilt and another tight contest.

The Massillon Army-Navy club got past Augusta, 62-59, in the opening game; Ashland Myers Pumps romped to a victory over a local club, the Mullins Manufacturers, 84-59; Parma Blepp Combs rallied to eliminate a powerful Canton Collegians outfit, 64-62; and Conway Music, a local team composed of Deming players upset the Columbiana Mays, 60-52.

THE INITIAL GAME was a rip-roaring tilt as Augusta, the underdog team, gave the Army-Navy outfit quite a battle. The Massillon group took a 13-7 first quarter advantage but Augusta came back and outscored them in the second period, 17-14, to cut their lead to three points at halftime, 27-24.

The last half saw the two teams see-saw the score numerous times but the Massillon team proved itself superior in the final minutes. Both teams tallied 19, 16 points in the final two periods and the three-point halftime lead provided the margin of victory.

The second game saw the Ashland quintet use their height to good advantage as they disposed of Mullins. The Manufacturers couldn't compare with the height that the Pumpers of Ashland possessed.

Ashland led 17-11 and 35-28 at the end of the quarter and halftime, respectively. Mullins dropped back three more points in the third period and a 29-point splurge in the final stanza zoomed the Pumpers far out in front.

PARMA BLEPP COMBS opened up with 18 markers in the first quarter of the third contest of the tournament while the Canton Collegians got 11 but the Collegians came back with 20 in the second period and cut the Parma lead to a single point at halftime, 35-34.

The Collegians, last year's winner in the consolation game, continued their pace and tallied 20 more markers in the third period and led, 51-46, going into the final period.

However, the Parma team failed to give up and roared back with the Canton team on the run. The Collegians held an eight-point lead going into the final minute and a half of play but the Parma quintet dumped them as they rallied for 18 markers in the last quarter while holding the Canton club to 11.

THE FINAL GAME watched the Conway Music team whip the Columbiana Mays as they enjoyed a big second quarter. Behind 19-12 after the initial period ended, the Music quintet scored 20 markers while yielding the Mays squad just eight points.

Seventeen more markers in the third period advanced the winners four more points on their lead and the third quarter ended, 49-40, a nine-point advantage.

Mays outscored the locals, 12-11, in the final period but the game was out of their hands as the locals won by eight, 60-52.

Ken Schoeni led the Music team with a total of 19 markers.

Action will open again tonight with three games slated to go. The activity will continue through Saturday night with tne semi-finals being decided Saturday afternoon.

Iglehart Has Played His Last Open Polo

By FRANK ECK

DELRAY BEACH, Fla.—Big time polo has lost one of its greatest competitors. Stewart B. Iglehart has decided not to compete in the U. S. Open next September.

Iglehart's decision undoubtedly will come as a shock to the U. S. Polo Association which recently put Iglehart back in the 10-goal class, apparently hoping he would return to action for next fall's tournament at Medowbrook in Westbury, N. Y.

Iglehart now visits New York for only two weeks a year because he is kept busy with his 25,000-acre cattle ranch at Okeechobee, 100 miles northwest of here. He has sold his New York construction business and devotes all of his time to his ranch and 2,500 head of cattle which consists mostly of Brahma steers. He deals directly with the large meat packers.

THE FORMER YALE polo and hockey star was rated at nine goals last year because he hadn't been seen in USPA-sanctioned matches. Though he hadn't played in an Open since 1948, all polo, except the USPA, felt he should have been kept at 10 goals with Cecil Smith of Texas and Bob Skene of California.

Iglehart now limits his polo to 15 games each winter as ace of the Delray team which plays every Sunday from mid-December to mid-March at the Gulfstream Polo Club. As a matter of fact, Iglehart promotes the polo here and has been doing right well.

All the big polo names except Skene and Smith, the nation's only other 10 goalers, have played here this winter. Nine-goaler George Oliver, who manages a ranch at Stuart for the Phipps interests, recently played Delray with Pedro Silvero, Bill Mayer and Henry Lewis as the Milwaukee team. Eight-goal Peter Perkins missed the three-game series due to a bad back but rode as referee. Delray won all three games.

RIDING WITH Iglehart all winter have been Mike Phipps, an 8-goaler, Stephen (Laddie) Sanford, owner of the Sanford Stud farm, Tom Healey and Juan Rodriguez, who came up from Argentina five years ago. Juan now works on Iglehart's ranch and trains his 13 polo ponies. Phipps missed the Milwaukee series because he wanted to brush up on his golf for the annual Seminole pro-amateur, listed for Palm Beach, March 18-19.

Even Pete Bostwick, who promotes polo at Westbury on Long Island, brought his Aiken, S. C., team down to this spot 18 miles south of Palm Beach. Aiken won the first game but Delray took the series. A Chicago team also found the Iglehart-Phipps combination too much to handle.

"Polo has been drawing better each year down here," says Iglehart. "We rarely miss a Sunday because when it rains it's only a shower.

Kansas Jayhawks Down St. John's, 80-68, For NCAA Crown

Clyde Lovellette Sparks Winners With 33 Points

SEATTLE (AP)—Kansas rules the world of collegiate basketball today and big Clyde Lovellette wears the crown.

The Jayhawks won the NCAA title in convincing fashion last night by downing St. John's of Brooklyn 80-68 in the championship finale of the 1952 playoffs.

Lovellette, keeping up a terrific scoring pace with the championship chips down, led the way with 33 points. His record-breaking performance brought him the designation as most valuable player of the tourney.

The Kansas conquest came after Illinois won third ranking by downing Santa Clara 67-64 in the consolation game. Kansas had beaten Santa Clara and St. John's had upset Illinois in the semi-finals.

Kansas, which was rated eighth by the nation's sports writers in the 1952 Associated Press poll, never gave the Redmen of St. John's a chance in the payoff game. Lovellette put the Kansans in front with an opening free throw and they stayed there all the way.

The Jayhawks set up an iron defense that kept the Redmen in check so they never were able to keep a sustained offensive clicking until the final period. It was the only one in which the losers held a scoring edge.

MEANWHILE, Lovellette kept firing his deadly pushups and hook shots to run up a dozen field goals along with nine free throws.

Guard Bill Lienhard and Forward Bob Kenny added a dozen points each as they shared the sharpshooting role with Lovellette, and Guard Gene Kelley was a sparkplug on the floor.

The 6-foot 9-inch Lovellette ran his four-game NCAA playoff scoring total to 141 points. He had broken the old record of 33 points in the first three games. It had been set by Don Sunderlage of Illinois last year.

He also set a new free throw record of 35 for the four games. The old record of 27 also was held by Sunderlage.

Another record that fell before the deadeye Kansans was the high score for an NCAA championship final. The 80 points topped the 71 tallied by City College of New York in beating Bradley for the title in 1950.

THE TIGHT KANSAS defense kept the St. John's star center, Bob Zawoluk, fairly well in check through most of the game as Lovellette hung over him like a leaning tower under the basket. Zawoluk got nine points in sparking a fourth quarter St. John's drive, bringing his game total to 20. He fouled out three and a half minutes before the end.

Kansas made it look like an impending runaway at the start, in running up a 7-1 margin. The Redmen rallied to pull up within a point at 10-9. Then Kansas started clicking to run up an 18-13 first quarter lead and a 41-27 halftime score. Kansas hit a decisive second period hot streak for 12 points while St. John's could only get a single field goal.

Illinois downed Santa Clara in the consolation game last night on the strength of big Jim Kerr's 26-point performance.

Santa Clara kept challenging all the way.

After the score was tied at 57-57 and 58-58, Illinois pulled ahead to 64-60 and held on to finish three points in front.

CAREY-ING LOAD — Andy Carey, Yankees' rookie third baseman, is the hottest thing in the 1952 Grapefruit Circuit, batting safely in the first seven exhibition games for a .519 average. Signed off the St. Mary's Calif., campus, the 21-year-old slugger hit 14 home runs at Kansas City last year.

Indians Lose In Ninth, 8-5

Feller Is Impressive In First Four Innings

TUCSON, Ariz (AP)—Bob Feller has quit "taking it easy" in exhibition games. The results: impressive.

Until yesterday, Bob was following his early spring training schedule of pitching in relaxed style to limber up the arm. Then, against the Chicago White Sox, he bore down for the first time.

In four innings, with a crowd of 2,795 cheering him on, he shut out the Sox on three hits and struck out one.

Rookie Red Fahr was less effective. He let Chicago won a 5-5 decision in the ninth, with Rookie George Wilson's three-run homer the deciding blow.

-:-

FAHR ENTERED the game with two men left on base by Lou Brissie. Chico Carrasquel started Red off with a double that scored one runner and Dixie Upright drove the tying run across with a single.

After Fahr fanner Ray Coleman, Wilson caught a fast ball and sent it over the left field scoreboard.

The Indians got nowhere in five innings with Chuck Stobbs, a left hander the White Sox obtained from the Boston Red Sox. But Harold Brown, a rookie from Seattle, was easier.

The Indians tagged him for four runs in the sixth and another in the eighth, but Brown wound up as the winning pitcher anyway.

Carrasquel let Cleveland start the sixth inning rally, muffing Bob Avila's pop fly and allowing him to reach second then followed a double by Larry Doby, Pete Reiser's single, a double by Johnny Berardino and a single by Jim Fridley.

Reiser scored in the eighth from third base on Merrill Combs' grounder for the Indians' other run.

RAY BOONE WAS bruised above the left eye when he was hit by Fridley's sixth inning throw the injury isn't serious . . . Many of the spectators at yesterday's game saw flames and smoke from the crash of a B-29 from Davis Monthan Field. The accident happened a mile from Corbett Field. All crew members were killed . . . The Indians open a two-game series with the St. Louis Browns today, then return to Los Angeles to start their yearly series with the New York Giants . . . Steve Gromek and Bob Kerrigan pitch today . . . Al Rosen failed to get a hit yesterday for the first time in eight games. With five homers, he could win the Grapefruit League home run crown. He says: "'Im not swinging for homers. I'm just leveling off each time."

NCAA Consolation Game Experiences New Rules

SEATTLE (AP)—Basketball's rules doctors will operate today on late-game stalling and cheap fouls—and in the opinion of most coaches who watched a trial run last night it should be major surgery.

It seemed certain that the rules body—The National Basketball Committee of the United States and Canada—would come up with something along the line of last night's experiment in the Illinois-Santa Clara consolation game at the NCAA championships, won the Illini, 67-64.

Briefly, here were the changes tried:

1. All foul shots had to be taken. Present rules permit a fouled team to take the ball out of bounds and retain possession, instead of shooting.

2. A second shot was awarded when the first was missed on any foul, either defensive or offensive, up to the final three minutes.

3. In the final three minutes, every foul was considered intentional and worth two shots.

The ball remained in play if the last foul shot was missed. It went to the opposing team if the toss was made.

-:-

HARRY C. COMBES, coach of the Big Ten champs from Illinois, called the changes "very fine."

"They had a lot of merit from the spectators' standpoint and took the pressure off the officials. We experimented with the same rule in the Big Ten two years ago and liked it," he added.

The major dissenter was Santa Clara's coach, Bobbe Feerick, who thought the idea would increase, rather than curtail, stalling. He said a team ahead, knowing it would get two shots in the closing minutes, would invite fouls by hanging onto the ball. That's what his team tried to do, and failed, with the score 58-58 at the three-minute mark.

However, the National Association of Basketball Coaches went resoundingly on record, 45-5, yesterday in favor of banning the waiver of foul shots. They sent this recommendation along to the National Rules Committee, along with several others in the same vein as those tried last night.

Three rule revisions were voted yesterday.

Use of non-leather balls was approved if both teams agree. Boundary lines of any thickness will be allowed and foul lanes and center jump circles may be solid colors. And ceilings in new gymnasiums must be a minimum of 22 feet in height.

Segura, Gonzales Win Tennis Tourney Matches

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Little Pancho Segura handed bulky Frank Kovacs a 6-2, 6-3, trimming last night in the Masters Pro tennis tournament.

Dick (Pancho) Gonzales defeated Jack Kramer, 6-4, 6-4, in the second match.

Gonzales has won four straight, and Segura three of four. Segura said he feels his play is improving and he still has a chance for the top prize of $3,000 in the $10,000 double round robin event sponsored by the Philadelphia Inquirer charities.

Kramer, who hasn't beaten anyone but Kovacs, and Kovacs, who has lost four straight, are out of the running as the tournament goes into its last two days.

Miami Beach, Fla. — Hank Thurman, 205, Modesto, Calif., stopped Ralph Schneider, 219, Chicago, 3.

9 Chicago Orphans Ordered Separated

CHICAGO (AP) — The nine young Green children, whose mother and eldest sister drowned two months ago, were ordered placed in three separate homes yesterday.

Custody of the motherless children, who have been living with their paternal grandparents since the tragedy, was decided by Judge Robert J. Dunne of Family Court. Patricia, 15, the eldest, sobbed as the judge announced his decision.

Mr. and Mrs Millard Green of suburban Willow Springs told Judge Dunne they did not have the financial means to continue caring for their grandchildren. Judge Dunne explained the grandparents were too old (they are in their 60's) to care for the children who range in age from one to 15 years.

Judge Dunne ordered that the $14,000 given the children in public contributions be held in trust for distribution to them as they come of age.

Secret Service officials declined to comment on the bullet-proof windows. It was while the Trumans were living in Blair House in 1950 that an attempt was made on the President's' life. His family was uninjured but a guard and one of the two assassins were killed.

For Lenten Supper

FOR a seafood supper during Lent serve South African rock lobster tails. The tails are quick-frozen as soon as they're taken from the icy waters off the Cape of Good Hope, then shipped here for our delectation.

These rock lobster tails are of fine flavor, moderate cost, and can be quickly prepared. For broiling choose those weighing seven to nine ounces apiece.

Have your fish dealer cut each frozen lobster tail through the hard outer-shell just until—but not through — the thin under-shell. Allow the tails to thaw at home. Then spread each tail flat on the broiling pan, hard outer-shell up.

Place the broiling pan about 5 inches below the broiling unit (preheated to moderate—350 F. to 375 F.) and broil for 5 minutes. Turn lobster tails with kitchen tongs so flesh side lies flat and faces broiling unit; spread flesh with a little butter and broil 7 minutes more or until lobster meat is opaque all the way through.

If you follow these directions the tails will not curl; they'll also be done to perfection, for this broiling under moderate heat leaves the lobster meat tender and succulent.

While the tails are broiling put one and a half tablespoons butter for each serving in individual ovenproof containers; place these on a baking sheet and let the butter melt in the oven; remove as soon as melted—don't let it get brown. Serve the lobster tails with forks and small sharp steak knives and your family and guests will find it easy to remove the meat and dunk each savory piece in the good melted butter.

Another way to serve these rock lobster tails is to team them with tomato and mushroom sauce and spoon over hot cooked rice. Here's the recipe:

ROCK LOBSTER WITH TOMATO-MUSHROOM SAUCE

- 5 to 6 six-to-eight-ounce boiled South African rock lobster tails
- 1 clove garlic (peeled)
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- ¼ cup minced onion
- 1 No. 2 can tomatoes
- 1 teaspoon celery seed
- 1 bay leaf
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1 three-ounce can broiled sliced or chopped mushrooms
- Hot cooked rice

Remove lobster tails carefully from shells while still warm by cutting through thin under-shell with kitchen scissors. Insert fingers between shell and meat and pull firmly. Heat garlic in olive oil 2 minutes and remove. Add onion and cook over moderately low heat 2 minutes, stirring a few times.

Add tomatoes, celery seed, bay leaf, salt, sugar, chili powder, and mushrooms (including liquid from can). Simmer uncovered ½ hour or until reduced about one-half in volume. Taste and add more salt if necessary. Add the prepared lobster tails. Cover and simmer over low heat several minutes or until lobster meat is just heated. Serve on platter with a border of rice. Makes 5 to 6 servings.

APRICOT CREAM PIE

- ½ cup sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2¼ cups milk
- 2 eggs (separated)
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 1 teaspoon vanila
- Few drops almond flavoring
- 1/3 cup chopped sweetened cooked dried apricots
- ½ cup chopped roasted unblanched almonds
- Baked 9-inch pastry shell
- ¼ cup sugar

Mix ½ cup sugar, salt, cornstarch and flour together thoroughly in top part of double boiler. In another saucepan scald milk and stir slowly into dry ingredients. Cook over boiling water until thickened, stirring constantly. Beat egg yolks and stir cooked mixture into them.

Return to top part of double boiler and cook over hot water 2 or 3 minutes longer, stirring costantly. Remove from heat and stir in butter, vanila and almond flavoring, apricots and almonds, reserving a few almonds for top of pie. Pour into baked pastry shell.

Beat egg whites until stiff. Add ¼ cup sugar gradually, beating well after each addition. Spread over pie and sprinkle with remaining almonds. Bake in hot (400° F.) oven about 8 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

SPINACH WITH MUSHROOMS

- ½ cup water
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 14-oz. package quick-frozen shopped spinach
- 1 10½-oz. condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 1 teaspoon finely grated onion (pump the juice)
- freshly-ground pepper

Put water and salt in a heavy saucepan wide enough to hold frozen block of spinach; bring to a boil. Add spinach and turn frequently with a fork, breaking it up, so it will thaw quickly. When completely thawed add mushroom soup and onion and cook over low heat, stirring often, until thoroughly hot. Mix in pepper to taste. Makes 5 to 6 servings.

TUNA SALAD

- ½ cup ripe olives
- 2 hard-cooked eggs
- 1 6½-oz. or 7-oz. can tuna
- 1 cup diced celery
- 2 tablespoons diced green pepper
- ½ cup mayonnaise
- 2 teaspoons cider vinegar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- Freshly ground pepper (to taste)
- 1 teaspoon finely grated onion
- Salad greens

Cut olives from pits into large pieces; dice eggs. Flake tuna coarsely over olives and eggs; add celery and green pepper. Mix mayonnaise with vinegar, salt, freshly-ground pepper and onion; pour over salad mixture, and mix lightly. Serve on crisp salad greens. Makes 4 small servings.

BUTTERSCOTCH PUDDING

- 1 cup sifted flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¾ cup sugar
- 2/3 cup seedless raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained)
- ½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
- ½ cup milk
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine (melted)
- ¾ cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 1/3 cups hot water

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, and sugar. Add raisins, ¼ teaspoon of the lemon rind, milk and butter; mix well. Spread in greased 8x8x2-inch pan. Sprinkle brown sugar over batter.

Mix lemon juice, remaining ¼ teaspoon lemon rind and hot water and pour over brown sugar and batter. Bake in moderate (350F.) oven 40 to 45 minutes. Serve warm with whipped cream. There will be a cakelike layer at the top of the pudding and a thick butterscotch sauce on the bottom. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

New way with fish: make a marinade of fresh lemon juice, soy sauce, ginger, brown sugar, and salad oil and let the fish fillets stand in the marinade for a couple of hours before broiling.

Herb Seasoning Gives Zest to Pot Roast

POT roast is a favorite on the menu of almost every family, but even favorite can pall. Keep your family's interest by varying your preparation of pot roast. For something unusual, try using herb seasoning such as this dilled pot roast suggests.

DILLED POT ROAST

- ¾ lb. rolled beef pot roast
- 2 tablespoons honey
- 1 tablespoon kitchen bauquet
- 2 tablespoons fat
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- 3 stalks fresh dill, or ½ teaspoon dill seeds
- 1 onion, quartered
- ½ cup water
- 3 tablespoons flour

Wipe pot roast with damp cloth. Blend together the honey and kitchen bouquet and brush all over the meat. Melt fat in Dutch oven.

Brown meat on all sides over moderate heat. Sprinkle with salt. Wash dill and fold or cut stalks to fit around meat in pan. Or sprinkle in the dill seeds.

Add quartered onion and the water. Cover immediately and cook over low heat until meat is tender, about 2½ to 3 hours, replenishing water if necessary. Turn meat when about half done.

When meat is tender, remove to warm serving platter. Cut off strings. Strain pan liquid. Pour off fat. Measure 3 tablespoons of the fat into a saucepan. Stir in the flour.

Add water to the broth to make 2 cups, if necessary. Combine with the flour and cook, stirring constantly until the gravy thickens and boils.

Add more kitchen bouquet if a browner color is desired. Serve the pot roast cut in thin slices accompanied with the gravy. Serves eight.

Put Food Money To Best Use

INVEST your food money wisely. Place where it will bring the best returns in good eating and good nutrition for the family. The best way to do that is to plan menus at least a day in advance. That gives you time to study markets for best buys and to plan how to fit valuable leftovers into meals and to check on nutritional balance.

Maybe some of the following menus will suggest food combinations for your own family.

Dinner: Tongue with mustard sauce, mashed potatoes, spicy sauerkraut, bread and butter pickles, corn bread, butter or fortified margarine, white cake with caramel frosting, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Grapefruit half with red jam, creamed chicken in rice ring with parsley garnish, sliced beets, iceberg lettuce with salad dressing, yeast rolls, butter or fortified margarine, lemon dilled meringues, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Lamb cutlet, green peas and potatoes in mushroom sauce, escarole salad, French bread, butter or fortified margarine, Apple Betty with cake topping, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Stuffed kidneys with chili sauce, whipped potatoes, snap beans, vegetable gelatin salad with sour cream dressing, bread, butter or fortified margarine, apple pan dowdy, coffee, milk.

Looking for a party dessert?

Chocolate Fudge Pie

- 1 eight-inch baked pastry shell
- 1-1/3 cups (15-ounce can) sweetened condensed milk
- 2 one-ounce squares unsweetened chocolate
- ¼ t salt
- ½ cup hot water
- ½ t vanilla

Pour sweetened condensed milk into top of double-boiler. Add chocolate and salt. Cook over rapidly boiling water, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and no longer runs from the spoon, about 4 to 8 minutes.

Stir in water gradually, blending well after each addition to keep mixture smooth. Cook without stirring until mixture thickens slightly for an additional 1 to 3 minutes.

Remove from heat. (If heat-resistant glass double-boiler is used, cover and cook for an additional 3 to 5 minutes.) Stir in vanilla.

Pour directly into baked pastry shell. Cool at room temperature, about one-half hour. Chill in refrigerator about 3 hours. Top with whipped cream. Makes one 8-inch pie.

FILLETS WITH SAUCE

- 4 to 5 fish fillets
- Butter or margarine
- Paprika
- 1 cup hot medium white sauce (well-seasoned)
- 2 tablespoons capers

Arrange fillets, flesh side up, in broiling pan; dot with butter and sprinkle with paprika. Broil, without turning, about 10 minutes or until fish flakes easily and is cooked through. Have white sauce very hot and stir capers into it. Transfer fish fillets to dinner plates with two wide spatulas and pour sauce over them; dust with paprika. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

MIXED SALAD BOWL

- 2 cups mixed salad greens (torn in small pieces and packed down somewhat into measuring cup)
- 1 medium-sized cucumber
- 1 medium-sized carrot
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 teaspoon tarragon vinegar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 small clove garlic
- Freshly-ground pepper (to taste

Put salad greens in salad bowl. Wash and dry cucumbers; pare off part of skin stripe-fashion, then score cucumber with sharp tines of fork; slice thin and add to greens. Pare carrot and then, using razor-like vegetable parer, cut into long thin flat strips and add to salad bowl..

Push vegetables in bowl to one side; to other side add olive oil, vinegar, salt and pepper; put garlic clove through press and add; mix these dressing ingredients together well at side of bowl with fork before tossing them thoroughly with vegetables. Serve at once. Makes 3 servings.

When chicken livers are bought the day before using, some cooks like to cover them with cold water before storing in the refrigerator.

Add a teaspoon of orange rind to the milk called for in the recipe when you're making plain muffins. Gives nice flavor!

Lenten Eggs

EGGS are way down in price. So let's take advantage of this good eating at budget prices.

Fluffy Eggs

Separate eggs holding the yolk in half of the shell. (The shell may be supported in a cup). Add salt to whites, approximately a scant ⅛ teaspoon per egg white.

Beat until stiff and glossy. Pile on rounds or squares of toast placed on baking sheet—make a hollow in each with back of spoon.

Drop egg yolk into hollow. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) until whites are lightly browned, 8 to 10 minutes. Serve promptly on platter with slices of glazed luncheon meat.

Lenten Eggs With Rice

¼ cup butter
1 T minced onion
¼ cup flour
1½ cups milk
3-ounce can sliced broiled mushrooms
½ cup finely diced American cheese
½ t salt
⅛ t pepper
2 cups cooked rice
4 eggs
paprika

Melt butter in saucepan. Add onion and let cook 1 minute over moderate heat. Stir in flour. Add milk and contents of can of mushrooms.

Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens and boils. Add cheese, salt and pepper. Remove from heat and stir until cheese melts. Place rice in each of four greased shallow individual baking dishes.

Make a small depression in center of each and break an egg into each depression. Spoon cheese and mushroom sauce gently over the tops of the eggs and rice. Sprinkle liberally with paprika.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 30 minutes until the egg is just set. Serve immediately for lunch, or for the main course at supper. 4 servings.

Try Ham, Biscuits For Pep Breakfast

FOR spring lunch or for a spring breakfast, try this combination of special ham and fluffy biscuits made with cake flour.

Spicy Glazed Baked Ham With Peaches

½ whole ham (about 5 lbs.)
½ cup maple-blended syrup
¼ teaspoon cloves
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 No. 2½ can peach halves, drained.

Trim rind from ham. Wipe with clean damp cloth and place in shallow baking pan. Start baking in slow oven (325 deg. F) 22 minutes per pound. When ham is half done, drain off drippings. Combine syrup and spices in sauce pan. Simmer 2 minutes.

Pour spiced syrup over ham and continue baking, basting every 15 minutes. Place peaches around ham during the last 15 minutes of baking. Baste peaches with the spiced syrup. Makes 8 servings.

Fluffy Biscuits

2 cups sifted cake flour
2½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons shortening
½ cup milk

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk and stir with fork until soft dough is formed (about 20 strokes).

Turn out on lightly floured board and knead 20 turns. Pat or roll ½-inch thick and cut with floured 2-inch biscuit cutter. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in hot oven (450 deg. F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 12 biscuits.

If you want a nicely browned top on a finished custard pie, add two tablespoons of butter to the milk before it is scalded for the filling.

Sweet-Sour Dutch Cooking Theme

PENNSYLVANIA Dutch cooking has heartiness with a sweet and sour emphasis. Take this recipe for example:

Hot Dutch Potato Salad

4 slices bacon
1½ cup chopped green pepper
¼ cup vinegar (if desired, dilute with 3 tablespoons water)
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon sugar,
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 quart hot, cooked, cubed potatoes
¼ cup chopped pimiento
3 hard-cooked eggs, diced.

Cut bacon into strips and pan-fry. Add onion and green pepper. Cook 3 minutes. Add vinegar, salt, pepper, sugar and beaten egg.

Cook slightly. Add cubed potatoes, pimiento, and hard-cooked eggs. Blend lightly. Serve hot. 8 servings.

That comes from Sara Hervey of Philadelphia, food editor for Country Gentleman. Here are two more from the same reliable source:

Sauerkraut and Smoked Pork Sausage

1 pound smoked country-style pork sausage
1 quart sauerkraut
1 medium onion, sliced
½ green pepper, diced.

Combine sauerkraut, onion, green pepper and enough boiling water to cover, in a heavy skillet or casserole. Lay sausage over surface of kraut. Cover tightly. Bake in a moderate oven (350 deg. F.) or simmer on surface heat one hour. About 6 servings.

Schnitzel Beans

4 slices bacon
3 medium onions, diced
1 quart frozen or fresh string beans
1/3 cup boiling water
3 tomatoes
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Cut bacon fine and pan-fry crisp and brown. Add onions and pan-fry until golden. Cut string beans in small pieces.

Chop tomatoes. Add beans, tomatoes, seasonings, and boiling water. Cook, covered, 15 to 20 minutes or until beans are tender. 6 servings.

PEACH CHIFFON PIE

4 to 5 drained canned cling peach halves
½ cup syrup from peaches
¼ cup sugar
2½ T cornstarch
¼ t salt
1 egg (separated)
1 t grated orange rind
¼ cup orange juice
1 baked 8-inch pastry shell

Force peaches through sieve to make 1 cup puree. Mix with peach syrup, sugar, cornstarch, and salt and cook over hot water, stirring often, until thickened. Beat yolk slightly, and beat a little of the cooked mixture into it; beat back into remaining mixture. Continue to cook and stir constantly over hot water 2 to 3 minutes longer.

Remove from heat; stir in orange rind and juice. Beat egg white stiff and fold in. Pour into baked pastry shell. Bake in slow (300) F.) oven about 30 minutes. Cool thoroughly before serving. Makes 6 servings.

WALNUT MUFFINS

1½ cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
1 egg
¾ cup maple-flavored syrup
¼ cup better or margarine (melted)
½ cup broken walnut meats

Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt on a piece of waxed paper. Break egg into medium-sized mixing bowl and beat just until yolk and white are combined; beat in maple syrup and melted butter. Add sifted dry ingredients and walnuts and stir only enough to moisten dry ingredients.

Fill greased muffin pans about 2/3 full. Bake in hot (400° F.) oven 20 to 25 minutes or until toothpick inserted in center of muffin comes out clean. Makes about 10 medium-sized muffins. Serve at once.

SPECIAL MERINGUES

Next time you make meringues to serve with ice cream dice maraschino cherries very fine and add them to the meringue mixture before baking. You'll need about twelve cherries for a recipe that calls for three egg whites.

Two-Way Muffins Win Top Compliments

BOTTOMS UP—or are they? Crisp crumb topping or apricot halves, either end of these upside down muffins means tops in eating pleasure. Take your choice --any way you serve them you'll get twice as many compliments as usual.

TWO-WAY MUFFFINS

- 2 cups flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- ½ cup sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup melted butter or table margarine
- 1 egg, well beaten
- 1 cup milk
- 12 stewed apricot halves
- 1/3 cup butter or margarine
- 2/3 cup flour
- 1/3 cup brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon

Sift first four ingredients together. Combine melted butter or margarine, beaten egg and milk. Add to dry ingredients and mix lightly only until all flour is dampened.

Grease muffin pans with margarine or butter and place a stewed apricot half in bottom of each cup.

Spoon batter into pans, filling each muffin cup about 2/3 cup full. Blend remaining ingredients until crumbly and sprinkle over batter. Bake in moderately hot oven (375) 30-35 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 12 muffins.

Spanish Rice Goes With Chicken

EVERY new recipe for fried chicken deserves reading. We heard of this one at a luncheon in New York to introduce a new weather-proof salt.

The salt defies dampness and humidity, flowing freely at all times. Harmless moisture-absorbent calcium silicate has been added, rain-proofing each tiny grain of salt. This seems to be the solution to clogging, lumping and sticking of salt.

Now back to the chicken fry.

Fried Chicken

Dry pieces of frying chicken between towels. For each pound chicken, mix ¼ cup flour, ¼ teaspoon paprika, ½ teaspoon salt, and ⅛ teaspoon pepper; place in paper bag. Drop in chicken, a few pieces at a time, and shake until well coated.

Fry chicken in sizzling hot fat, ¼ to ½ inch deep, in heavy skillet until lightly browned on both sides. Cover and cook slowly 30 to 45 minutes longer, or until tender, turning frequently. Remove cover for last 5 minutes of cooking.

This quick Spanish rice goes with the fried chicken.

Quick Spanish Rice

- 4 T butter
- 1/3 cup coarsely chopped green pepper
- ½ cup finely chopped onions
- 1-1/3 cups packaged pre-cooked rice
- 3 cups canned tomatoes
- 2 t salt
- ⅛ t pepper

Melt butter in skillet. Add green pepper and onions and cook until tender, but not brown. Add rice, tomatoes and seasonings. Cover and cook gently about 10 minutes.

For dessert, have cup cakes. Slice them horizontally in half. Ice like sandwich filling. Place a hole in center and fill with a salted nut. 4-6 servings.

PINEAPPLE, CUCUMBER SALAD

- 1 package lime gelatin
- 1½ cups hot pale dry ginger ale
- 1 9-oz can pineapple pieces
- Juice of 1 lemon
- ¼ cup cider vinegar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ cup diced cucumber
- Water cress
- Salad dressing

Dissolve gelatin in ginger ale; stir in syrup from can of pineapple, lemon juice, vinegar, and salt. Chill until consistency of unbeaten egg white.

Fold in pineapple pieces and cucumber. Pour into individual molds that have been rinsed in cold water. Chill until set. Unmold on water cress. Serve with salad dressing. Makes 6 servings.

CRUMB PUDDING

- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 cup stale (dry but not hard) nutcake crumbs (firmly packed)
- 1 cup sweetened applesauce
- 1/3 cup cream
- 2 teaspoons confectioners sugar
- Few drops vanilla

Melt butter or margarine in a skillet over low heat; add cake crumbs and mix well; remove from heat. Sprinkle a little more than half the cake crumbs in the bottom of two individual heat-resistant glass 6-inch pie plates; spoon applesauce over crumbs; sprinkle with remaining crumbs.

Bake in very hot (450F.) oven until just hot through, 7 or 8 minutes. Whip cream with sugar and vanilla and serve on top of warm puddings.

Week's Taxes Total More Than Year '40

WASHINGTON (INS) — The U. S. Chamber of Commerce reported today that tax collections between March 18 and 21—5.3 billion dollars—exceeded the entire total for the year 1940.

Dr. George Cline Smith, director of the Chamber's government economy program, said the payments "struck a hard blow" to the nation's economy. He added:

"Retailers in almost every line of business are reporting sharply dropping sales. The service trades, amusements and hotels are generally complaining of a sharp set back.

"'These immediate effects can be expected to reflect themselves in manufacturing and other industries as well."

Smith predicted some improvement "before long" but he contended that high taxes will continue until federal spending and taxes are slashed.

Under the present tax bill, he said, every family in the U. S. pays $1,589. This figure, he added, would jump to $1,935 if President Truman's 85.4 billion dollar budget for fiscal 1953 is approved.

TRAFFIC CONTROL

SECTION 4.

Police to Direct Traffic. It shall be the duty of the Police Department to enforce the provisions of this Traffic Code. Officers of the Police Department shall direct all traffic, either in person or by means of visable or audible signals, in conformance with the provisions herein; provided that in the event of a fire or other emergency, or to expedite traffic or safeguard pedestrians or vehicular traffic, officers of the Police or Fire Department may direct traffic as condition may require.

SECTION 5.

Traffic Signs and Signals. (a) The Council shall by resolution determine and designate the character or type of all official traffic signs and signals. Subject to the selection, the Director of Public Safety shall place and maintain, or cause to be placed and maintained, all official traffic signs and signals. All signs and signals required hereunder for a particular purpose shall, so far as practicable, be uniform as to type and location throughout the city. (b) No provision of this Traffic Code for which signs are required shall be enforced against an alleged violator if, at the time and place of the alleged violation, the sign herein required is not in proper position and sufficiently legible to be seen by an ordinarily observant person. Whenever a particular section does not state that signs are required, such section shall be effective without signs being erected to give notice thereof.

SECTION 6.

Traffic Control Signals. (a) Whenever traffic at a street intersection or at a railway crossing is controlled by traffic control signals exhibiting colored lights or the words "Go", "Caution", and "Stop", the lights and terms shall indicate as follows:

Green or "Go": Traffic facing this signal may proceed, except that vehicular traffic shall yield the right of way to pedestrians and vehicles lawfully within a crosswalk or the intersection at the time such signal was exhibited. Left and right turns may be made, unless otherwise specified.

Yellow or "Caution": Traffic facing this signal shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at the intersection, unless so close to the intersection that a stop cannot be made in safety.

Red or "Stop": When a traffic control signal exhibits only the green and red lights and the red or stop light is shown together with the green or "Go" light, this shall take the place of the yellow or "Caution" light, and the regulations governing the yellow or "Caution" light shall also apply to such red or "Stop" signal; when shown alone, traffic facing the signal shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at the intersection, or at such other points as may be designated by the Director of Public Safety, and remain standing until the green or "Go" is shown alone, except as follows:

1. Traffic going west on West State Street may make a right turn on the Benton Road at all times.

2. Traffic going south on South Ellsworth Avenue may make a right turn onto Railroad Street at all times.

3. Traffic going south on South Ellsworth Avenue may make a right turn onto Mill Street at all times.

(b) The operator of a vehicle intending to turn to the left at an intersection where traffic is controlled by traffic control signals or by a police officer shall proceed to make such left turn from the center of the street, with proper care to avoid accident and only upon the green or "Go" signal, unless otherwise directed by a police officer.

SECTION 7.

Crosswalks. The Director of Public Safety shall establish and designate crosswalks at intersections where in his opinion there is particular danger to pedestrians crossing the roadway, and at such other places as he may deem necessary, and shall thereafter maintain, or cause to be maintained, by appropriate devices, marks or lines upon the surface of the roadway.

SECTION 8.

No person shall place, maintain or display upon or in view of any street any official sign, signal or device which purports to be or is in imitation of or resembles an official traffic sign or signal, or which attempts to direct the movement of traffic, or which hides from view or interferes with the effectiveness of any official sign or signal. Driving on Left Side of Highway. No driver of a vehicle shall drive to the left side of the center line of a highway in overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction, unless such left side is clearly visible and is free of oncoming traffic for a sufficient distance ahead to permit such overtaking and passing to be completely made without impeding the safe operation of any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction of any vehicle overtaken; and no driver of a vehicle shall drive to the left side of the center line of a highway when approaching the crest of a grade or upon a curve in the highway where the driver's view along the highway is obstructed within a distance of five hundred feet, or when approaching within one hundred feet of or traversing any intersection or railroad grade crossing unless compliance with this section is impossible because of insufficient roadway space.
